

MODERN MENTORING

with

Beverly Moultrie

Beverly Moultrie is a human resources professional and business consultant with experience in healthcare, start-ups, and large-scale enterprises. She has worked for over 24 years in the area of human resources, leadership, and diversity and inclusion. Beverly is a certified mentor and architect of two keynote initiatives: a mentorship program for aspiring girls in leadership and STEM careers and a monthly leadership breakfast series promoting dialogue about diversity and cultural differences.

In this session, Beverly will discuss three dynamics of mentoring in the 21st century.

1. How mentoring has evolved over the past 10 years.
2. Current and future trends in mentoring.
3. Current best practices if you are a mentor or considering becoming a mentor.
